

INDIANA TO THE FRONT.—The Democratic State Central Committee of Indiana has issued an address to the Democrats and Liberal Republicans of that State, in which they congratulate the voters of both parties on the success with which they met the organized and compact forces of the Administration. The victory would have been more complete, they say, had not a small element of the party remained at home on election day. This element, however, will now appreciate the importance of entire union in their ranks, and rally to the support of the ticket in November. The unscrupulous men who invoked the corrupting influence of money and fraudulent votes have not yet accomplished all they had hoped, and the result shows that a majority of the legal voters of the State are in favor of reform and opposed to the present Administration. A united effort on the part of those who feel that the welfare of the country requires a change of administration, is all that is needed to secure the electoral vote of Indiana for reconciliation and reform. The address concludes as follows:

Amid unmerited calumny the Liberal Republicans have stood faithfully and true to the cause represented by our tickets. They have given an unwavering support to the State ticket, in the selection of which they had no voice. The Democratic masses stood in almost unbroken line in support of the principles of constitutional liberty and good government, as declared in the Cincinnati and Baltimore platforms. The late elections fully demonstrate that if all who are opposed to continuing the present corrupt Administration, and the more corrupt ring which controls it in power, will act together, it can and will be defeated, and the nominees of the Cincinnati and Baltimore Conventions elected in its stead. This is a great contest—a contest between the people on the one hand and a corrupt army of office-holders on the other. It is to be determined in this contest whether an Administration which has lost the confidence and respect of a vast majority of the people can perpetrate its power by the corrupting influence of its patronage and the free use of money, or whether the people are yet strong enough to defeat the combined effort of bad men, and once more place their Government on the sound basis of fraternity, honesty and economy. Democrats and Liberals, in the struggle that yet remains, let us move forward as one man. Let there be from this time forward but one party, standing on a common platform, the platform of the Cincinnati and Baltimore Conventions, and doing battle for a common object—the redemption of our country from this rule, and the restoration of harmony and brotherly love throughout all our borders, and victory must perch upon our standard.

Another disgusting phase of Pennsylvania political corruption is out. The Scranton Free Press chronicles the arrest of the Mayor and postmaster of that city, with that of several prominent Grant officials, on charge of ballot-box stuffing and bribery. The charges, which are specifically made, are astounding. These men are alleged to have bought votes, bribed judges, and used all the black arts known to election corruptionists. Moreover, the affidavits in these cases are already in hand. The whole business is eminently Pennsylvania, or, we should say, Cameronian. If these revelations continue, the world will have new views of "the great moral victory" in the Keystone State.

Massachusetts politicians are canvassing the probability of the Legislature having to elect two United States Senators next winter.

Prince Napoleon Bonaparte, accompanied by his wife, Princess Clothilde, have taken their departure from Geneva en route for Milan.

AMAZING!!

"Amazement on My Mother Sits."

SUCH was the exclamation young Hamlet made to his "Ma," upon her return from the GREAT GROCERY STORE of

GEORGE SYMMERS.

The old lady had been in a good deal of trouble lately, about Grocery matters; but wandering a little further than her wont down town, she happened to step into

"SYMMERS," Purchased her supplies, upon receipt of which, satisfaction so based upon her constance, that young Hamlet (hoping usual) let loose the expression used to point the moral of this advertisement.
